Age on Pageant Day

The Holmes County Chamber of Commerce is proud to present the 2019 Miss Trailblazer pageant. The winners of this pageant will represent the Bonifay Down Home Street Festival at the event on March 16, 2019. This event is MANDATORY, NO EXCEPTIONS.

The winners will also be REQUIRED to attend either the Trailblazer Trot held Saturday March 9, 2019, OR The Annual Golf Tournament held on Friday March 15, 2019.

Other mandatory events:

NWFL Championship Rodeo Parade either Friday October 4th, or Saturday October 5th. Both dates encouraged.

The winners will be provided with a sash, crown, and TShirt to represent the festival.

Any girl that has never been married or pregnant is eligible to compete in this pageant. You must live in a 100 mile radius of Holmes County, and be present at mandatory events.

If you have ever had a pageant title revoked, for whatever reason, you must advise the pageant director before submitting this application.

Attire

Baby: Pageant or Sunday best dress.

Toddler: Short pageant dress

Tiny: Long or Short pageant dress.

Little: Short or Long Pageant dress

Junior through Miss: Long Pageant dress

Queen's Contract

As a reigning Miss Trailblazer Queen, you will be expected to follow certain guidelines and rules throughout the year. Please read the following contract carefully and sign at the end

Should a queen fail to comply, she or her guardians will be expected to relinquish her title, crown and sash, to the first runner-up. (Certain circumstances will be excused) Reigning queens must dress appropriately at all appearances. Reigning queens will not wear shorts at public appearances unless approved by the director. All skirts and dresses must be an appropriate length. No halter tops, cut off-shirts, or strapless shirts allowed. No shorts or jeans of any type should be worn unless previously approved by the director. Failure to comply will result in a verbal warning from the director. Should a reigning queen continue to be noncompliant, she will be expected to relinquish her title, crown and sash, to the first runner-up. Reigning queens must behave appropriately at ALL times. This includes times when not at a public event or function (This includes on-line as well). Should a reigning queen fail to comply she will be expected to relinquish her title, crown and sash to the first runner-up. Queens must use the same code of conduct online and on social media as if she is in public representing her crown. ANY form of bullying, including cyber, WILL NOT be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, My Space, Snapchat, Vine, etc. The first offense will result in immediate disciplinary action which will result in loss of the Title holder's crown. Drama in any form, either during or after the pageant, in the form of verbal, cyber, media, etc. will not be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to verbal abuse or physical abuse against another contestant, parent, director or pageant. The following are grounds for relinquishing a title: Inappropriate behavior while at a function, underage drinking and smoking, swearing in public, arrest, suspension from school or bus, expulsion from school, not complying with mandatory functions, bad attitude about anything or anyone related or associated with the Miss Trailblazer Pageant, Down Home Street Festival, or Holmes County Chamber of Commerce or any form of bullying. If you fail to complete your reign you will no longer be eligible to compete in the Miss Trailblazer Pageant again. It is expected that not only the reigning queen behave appropriately, but the parents/guardians as well.

Remember parents, you are your child's first role model.

PLEASE SIGN AND RETURN:

I _____ have read and understood the above contract and will abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the Miss Trailblazer Pageant Director, Melea Kirk, well as the Holmes County Chamber of Commerce. I understand that failure to abide by these guidelines will result in the loss of title and prizes associated with The Miss Trailblazer Pageant.
